

PO Header Data

Description

The parameter contains general PO header data (such as the vendor number, document type, purchasing organization).

For more information on the individual parameter fields, see the data element documentation in the ABAP Dictionary.