

Controlling area

Definition

Key that uniquely identifies a controlling area.

The controlling area represents the highest organizational unit in Controlling.

Use

For both a 1:1 as well as for a 1:n relationship between controlling area and company code, the number of posting periods of the controlling area and of the company code(s) must be identical. A variance in the special periods is allowed by the R/3 System.