Description

The DELTA indicator specifies whether the function module should add the transferred values to the existing values.

Value range

1. X - The value is added to the existing value.

2.   - The value is not added to, but rather overwrites the old value.